BASE BALL

As It Looks on Paper. Point of Concentration For Welders of the Big Bluegrass. Lumbering up Period Loom up as Blossom of Spring Approach. A. S. Wells, Mentioned as Likely Candidate for League Presidency, Season Open April 19.

By J. Alba Austin.

Just a few more days and then the lid of the nineteen nineteen base ball season will be lifted off to the tune of boys, play ball.

After a long and protracted silence of seven months' fadom will arise in a body to welcome the gladiators of the diamond in true majestic style on April 19th day designated by the management of the Dallas Black Giants as opening of the regular base ball season in Dallas. Gentlemen! Be seated.

In looking over the Giants reserve list the writer found the following names: Dore Brown, pitcher; James names: Dave Brown, pitcher; James base; Will Jones, 2nd base; Dave Johnson, shortstop; Spearment, 2nd base; Bobby Sloan, center field; Black Son, right field, and Harry Scott, left field. This nucleus of playing material is already in stock.

A sharp look into the Dallas Black Giants, they are now in Kansas City, and will report in time to get in harness. This is a probable line-up, however, and is subject to change. New blood will be added to reinforce the veterans.

If Fort Worth builds the team on the lead-and-covering to put together there will be a hot old argument around the loop, in the coming season. Fort Worth, however, is yet a dark horse, all lines leading into the old packing house berg are busy with the hope of landing a whale of a shark to land the Dallas Black Giants. They as all others do observe that it is no snap for any club to humble the Giants.

Take Waco, with Charlie Tusa at its head assembled one of the fastest outfits seen here last season, endeavoring to outdo the "Jinks" in a down a button hole lower they come pretty near completing the job but fell a few feet downward on the home stretch. Giants humbled them in the final.

Will look Beaumont over next time and then Houston. We will see what the armistice profited them for the season.

Manager R. Lee Jones of Dallas Giants stated that he has signed a college player, Nathan Washington, an infielder, Cornellus Rector, a pitcher, Hudson, a south paws, Ben Wilson made the cast set up and take notice with the war club.

Clubs may write for pre-season games only first class teams desirable. Must have good reputation. Write your club up in the Dallas Express. All base ball clubs must be sent to J. Alba Austin, base ball editor by Monday morning.

A. J. Turner, Joe Ashley, John Carter, A. R. Pryor—get your old base ball dusters and get ready for a good old knock down and drag out season of rough and tumble hair raising and teeth grinding base ball franchises. For its going to be a season of hard milling from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

Judge A. S. Wells has been mentioned as probable candidate to head the 1919 Texas season of nineteen nineteen.

SPECIAL TO THE PUBLIC.

To Whom It May Concern:

The alleged charges against Rev. L. B. Skinner, the pastor of the Salem Baptist church of Dallas, Texas, has caused an unrest among the colored citizens of Dallas, and especially the colored ministers, and in justice to us and the Christian profession, on behalf of the ministry and moral standing of the race, we have weighed the evidence and the testimony given against Rev. L. B. Skinner, at the preliminary trial and the out come of the decision of the grand jury and now having obtained the printed actions of the grand jury, which exonerates Rev. L. B. Skinner, we, the Southside Baptist Ministers' Alliance has spared no little pains in getting the facts in the case, which has beyond question, pronounced him innocent, and free from guilt, and do hereby set our approval of his innocence and has been declared by the Judge and the Jurors of Dallas Court, and we do hereby take this method in letting the public know that the Rev. L. B. Skinner is a good man, and is in full fellowship with us as ever before and we do pray his success and continued pastorate of the Salem Missionary Baptist church. And we give further notice to all concerned that his church members, and our hearty approval in the way and manner in which they rallied to him, (Rev. L. B. Skinner) in the darkest hours of his grief, when would be enemies were assailing and slandering his good name and reputation. But it is our duty to set the record straight, and to let the public know that a copy of these resolutions be printed in the race papers, both Secular and Denominational, and be it further resolved, that a copy be sent to Rev. L. B. Skinner, to be kept by him as a reserve as an expression of our high appreciation of him as a high classed Christian minister, as the trust we repose in him.

Respectfully your committee, REV. F. K. WHITE, D. D. REV. S. A. ANDERSON, D. D. REV. H. FLETCHER, REV. W. SHAW, D. D., REV. R. W. SHAW, D. D.

PREPARING FOR THE CONGRESS.

Bessemer, Ala., (Reciprocal News Service). Since the announcement that the Sunday School Congress will be held in this city June 11th to 15th the Sunday School Congress forces have been getting together on a plan of organization that will spread throughout this state. Every Sunday School superintendent, pastor and church worker will be asked to form a mammoth committee of five hundred to further push to perfection the organization so that when the Sunday School forces arrive, this district, in which there are more than one hundred thousand Negroes, will be touched as never before by the spirit of Sunday School work. Encouragement along this line has come already because of the recent visit of the Rev. R. H. Boyd, D. D., the secretary of the National Baptist Publishing Board at Nashville, Tenn., who is the director and promoter of the Congress. He delivered an able address at Birmingham and another one in this city. The way is already paved for other national workers, as it has been announced that the Secretary of the Sunday School Congress, Rev. Henry A. Boyd, of Nashville, Tenn., has consented to touch the suburbs of greater Bessemer during the month, making his initial appearance at Emley under the auspices of the Sunday Schools of the city. Revs. T. J. James, J. H. Magwood and others are pushing the Congress idea as never before, and the state of Alabama, irrespective of denomination, is still rejoicing over the tidings of the coming of the meeting.

"ROOSEVELT DEAD GAME SPORT CLUB."

Suggested as Fitting Memorial to Colonel Roosevelt.

New York, Feb. 27.—The Roosevelt Permanent Memorial National Committee, of which Colonel William Boyce Thompson is chairman, has made public a letter from Howard Constable of the American Society of Civil Engineers, in which Mr. Constable advocates the formation of a "Roosevelt Dead-Game Sport Club, with headquarters throughout the country and branches in the larger cities," as a fitting memorial to Theodore Roosevelt—"a place," suggests Mr. Constable, "in which full play would be given for the things that were dear to his heart and represented patriotic, manly activities; a place free from the molly-coddle and goody-goody boy idea; a place for sparring, tennis, bowling, gymnasium, etc., for lectures on practical politics, business and travel, with a library and lunch room. In most cases space would be devoted to Boy Scouts as Junior Members," adds Mr. Constable, "to develop the appeal by such organizations as the Locomotive Engineers, the Carpenters, the Laborers, the Bankers, the Roosevelt Club, the Bankers, the Roosevelt Club, etc." The Roosevelt Memorial Committee admits that although it might not prove feasible for this Committee to form such clubs, followers of Roosevelt in different localities might very profitably organize along the general lines laid out by Mr. Constable.
